Goal Statement

The ECYSA goal is to provide a parent friendly, county wide, recreational program where children and parents learn soccer skills, have a good time and exhibit good sportsmanship.

Make checks payable to
Edgefield County
Recreation Department.
(They charge
for insufficient funds!)

Shoe and
Shin Guard Swap
January 19th
and January 26th.

Please bring your child's old cleats and shin guards that he or she has outgrown to registration at the soccer field. We will distribute them to kids who can use them.

Registration Form Continued - More info about season will be provided later
For More Info Call Nick Wates at 637-2621

Please Remember!

*All players MUST have shin guards at practice and games.

*Players should bring their own water to practice and games. Be sure to write your child's name on his/her ball.

*Participation trophies will be given to all kids.

*All players are covered with a basic insurance policy

*Each team needs a soccer mom. Soccer moms help coaches with calling players for practice time changes and game cancellations.

Please join FCA. FCA is the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and is an organization designed to develop a faith in Jesus. The fish emblem is on all jerseys and sponsored by local churches.

*The ECYSA will make every effort to honor carpooling request. We will balance request with the need of the league to have teams that are evenly divided. (Age and gender) Please remember everybody practices at the same time.
